CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR &
V.M.KANADE, JJ.

DATED : 29th AUGUST, 2005.

P.C.

1. Heard. Perused the affidavit filed by Shri Vishwanath Yeshwant Rane, Estate Manager (W), Mumbai Housing and Area Development Board. It apparently discloses that all the inquiries have been completed and only because of the interim order which was granted by this Court, further proceeding as regards the allotment of land is being withheld.

2. Considering the contentions sought to be raised in the matter, it would be too premature for this Court to issue any direction, as sought, to the respondents in the matter of allotment of plots. Once the respondents have expressed their desire to go ahead with the proceedings in accordance with the provisions of law, in our view, it is not necessary to issue any direction as sought in this matter, except observing that the respondents shall take appropriate decision in the matter in accordance with the provisions of law as expeditiously as possible and in any case within a period of six months from today. Needless to say that in case of any adverse order is passed against the petitioners, they shall be entitled to challenge the same in accordance with the provisions of law. It is also made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on any of the points sought to be raised in this petition and the same are kept open.

3. With these observations, the petition is disposed of. Rule stands discharged with no order as to costs.
